Homelessness?

How Will You End

The Our City Coalition Presents:

The Jumping, Orange County, 3770, Homeless People's Struggle on the Street, June 22.

In 2005, with great fanfare, King County launched a Ten Year Plan to end Homelessness.

At the end of June 2012, the only goal we are close to is 40% of the year plan to end homelessness.

This is unacceptable. We can do better. Come hear candidates in the upcoming elections.

And transitional housing. Over 7,000 people in King County are known to be homeless.

At noon on June 22nd, those can and must come to a dose. So how are we doing?

We invite you to stay for the Orange County (WBC's and blankets provided).

Homelessness is a human right. We are a self-managed housing community for homeless people. Everyone has the right to housing justice and the right to live in a world in which everyone lives in safety and dignity. We are a community of activists working to end homelessness and build a world in which everyone is housed and belongs.

The Our City Coalition (OCC) grew out of the Occupy CHC Coalition. We are a diverse and vibrant network of people who are committed to ending homelessness and building a world where everyone has a home. We believe in a society that produces such vast wealth that ours should be able to provide a healthy planet, universal access to health care, nutritious food, education, shelter and housing, public space, financial security, and decent work.

The Our City Coalition (OCC) is a group of people who have come together to end homelessness in Seattle and King County. We are a community of activists working to end homelessness and build a world in which everyone is housed and belongs.
